THE GOLDA MEIR FELLOWSHIP FUND

INFORMATION FOR POST-DOCTORAL APPLICANTS

An application form together with a brief curriculum vitae and research proposal (all of which to be submitted in duplicate) and a health certificate should be mailed directly to the address below.

It is essential to contact a senior Faculty member who would be willing to become your supervisor during your stay.

Candidates may not apply later than 4 years after completion of their doctoral dissertation.

The post-doctoral fellowship defrays reasonable expenses and includes travel and accommodation allowances.

Where necessary, the Hebrew University authorities will assist the fellows in finding accommodation in Jerusalem.

The academic session at the Hebrew University begins mid October and ends mid June.

Fellows are expected to remain in residence for a period of 9-12 months.

First week of November is the deadline for the receipt of completed application forms and supporting material. Applications received after this date cannot be considered.

The authorities of the Fund will communicate their decision directly to the applicants in March.

Please return application and supporting materials to:

POST-DOCTORAL FELLOWSHIPS

THE GOLDA MEIR FELLOWSHIP FUND Jerusalem, Israel

The Hebrew University of Jerusalem invites applications for Post-Doctoral Fellowships in Humanities, Social Sciences, Natural and Applied Sciences, Agriculture and Medicine.

Candidates may apply at an early stage of their professional career (not later than four years after completion of their Doctoral Dissertation).

The Fellowships are tenable for one academic year and may be extended for another year. The Fellowship provides a 12-month stipend (with C.O.L. adjustments), rent allowance and a return ticket to Israel.

Completed application forms must be returned by first week of November.

Academic references are confidential and must be returned directly to the above address, and not submitted with the completed application.
